What further steps it would take, Cuno added, would depend on action by the other side.

RIOTING SEEN IN ESSEN
(By the Associated Press.)
ESSEN, Jan. 11.—A sample of the political electricity surcharging the atmosphere here is found in last night's disturbance when 5,000 Essen citizens stormed the doors of the Kaiserhof, the city's leading hotel demanding the expulsion of the French commission believed to be lodging there.

The management's assurances that no Frenchman was in the house were unsatisfactory in view of the fact that a flower pot accidentally fell from an upstairs window among the demonstrators.

Scores of persons swarmed into the building but Dr. Hans Luther, minister of food in the Cuno cabinet arrived and prevented serious consequences. Dr. Luther, when the disturbance began had begun to read an address to correspondents in which he made a plea for moral support for Germany in the issue raised by France.

The occupation of the Ruhr, he said, would be a violation of the rights of humanity as well as the Versailles treaty. He cited instances of acute distress among the people to refute the French charge that Germany is able, but unwilling to pay.

In the course of the interview he said he had flitted come from the largest mass meeting ever held in Essen in which citizens of all political creeds except the communists, had protested against the French occupation. He read a copy of the resolution at this meeting. It was addressed to the German ambassador at Britain and United States and called attention to the alleged illegality of the French position. The resolution asked America and England to come to the moral aid of Germany. It further asserted that the French policies spelled perpetuation of hatred between the two peoples and raised a danger to world peace.

One of the largest building enterprises in this community is now rapidly nearing completion. That is the new concrete unit which is being added to the Schofield group of mills and which, when finished will be used as a cotton finishing plant. This formidable mass of concrete and steel can best be seen by following what has come to be known as "Riverside Drive."

It was learned authentically last night that barring a continuation of the extreme low temperature, the structural work will be completed within three weeks. Interior work will be started immediately and the project pushed to completion and occupancy.

City Committee Called To Meet Saturday Night
Secretary Jesse Benton of the City Democratic Executive Committee has called a meeting of that body which has a membership of 25, to meet on Saturday night at 5 o'clock in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of considering the action which the county Democratic committee took individually at Charleston yesterday. At yesterday's meeting it was proposed for both organizations to decide the question of making a nomination for the State Senate to take the place vacated by the resignation of George T. Reed.

The city committee was not fully represented at Charleston, however, and in the absence of a quorum no definite action could be taken. The county committee went on record in favor of a convention to make a nomination for the vacancy. This action will on Saturday night be recommended to the city committee which may or may not concur. Should there be a division between the two committees in other words should the city committee object to the convention plan, Chairman Boyd of the State Executive Committee will be called in as a final arbiter to make a decision between the two plans.

Former King Constantine, of Greece, Dies
Passes Away Suddenly, a Victim of Cerebral Hemorrhage—Abdicated the Throne in 1917.

(By the Associated Press.)
PALESTINE, Egypt, Jan. 11.—Former King Constantine of Greece died suddenly today of cerebral hemorrhage.

Constantine I abdicated the throne of Greece in 1917, at the demand of Great Britain, France and Russia, powers which had guaranteed the constitutional liberty of the Greeks. He ruled over the destinies of the Hellenes for a little more than four years, during which it is charged that he nullified the Greek constitution by repeated dissolutions of parliament opposed to his pro-German attitude in the war, created an intolerable condition affecting not only Greece but the entire allies, and in the words of Premier Briand of France, had "amply justified the intervention of the protecting powers." In yielding his throne, Constantine nominated his second son, Alexander, as his successor, thus making the claims of Crown Prince George, whose attitude was regarded as pro-German, Alexander was acceptable to the Entente powers and to Premier Venizelos of the pro-Entente government, which had been established at Salonika, and he assumed the Greek throne.

Constantine with a wife and several children were conveyed from Athens on a British warship to an Italian port and thence proceeded to Switzerland where the deposed king made his home for some months following his abdication.

Constantine's devotion to the cause of Germany and the Central Powers was generally attributed to the influence of his wife, Sophia, a Hohenzollern Princess and sister of Emperor William of Germany. Criticism of him was aroused by his repudiation of the treaty between Greece and Serbia pledging the support of either power if the other were attacked by Bulgaria. Constantine asserted that Greece was not bound to carry out her part of the pledge because Serbia was

Man May Soon Be Rebuilt With Organs
From Lower Animals, Says Surgeon

BY BOB DORMAN
(Special to The Bee)

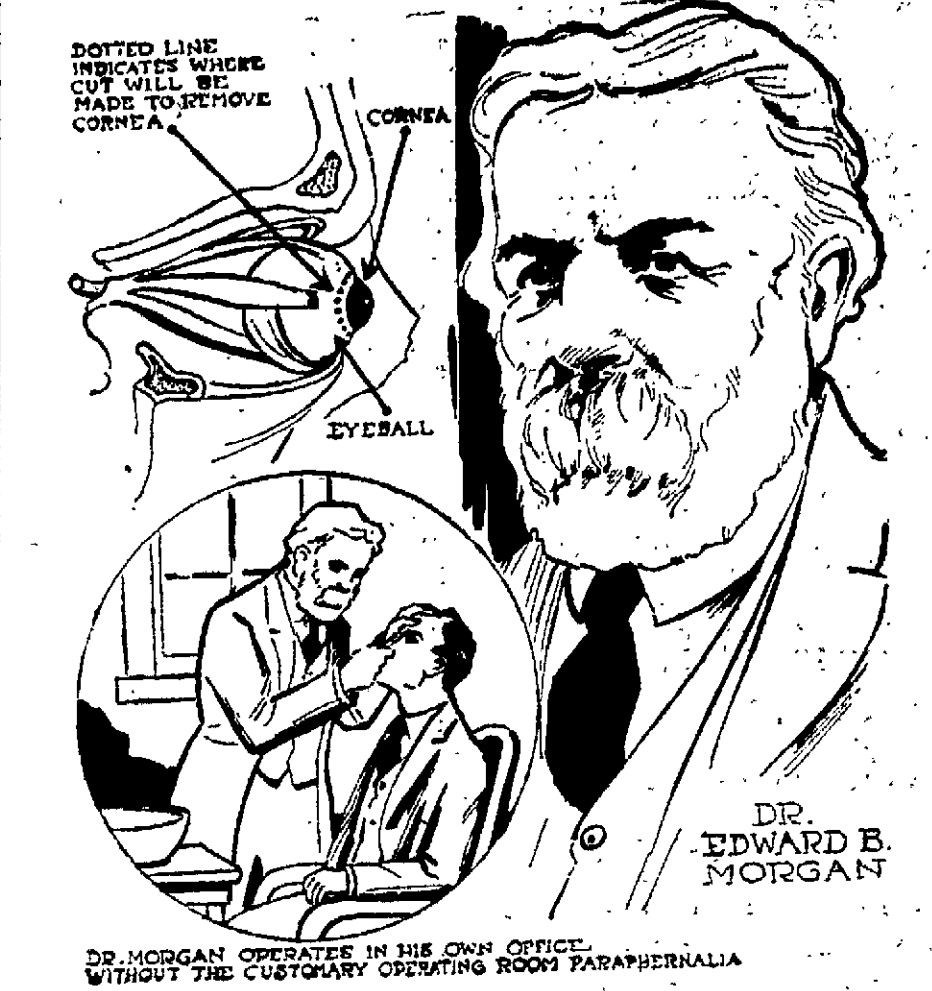

CATERSON, N. J., Jan. 11.—Monkey glands, pig's eyes and other animal parts will soon be replacing worn-out organs of the human body, as a common practice, according to Dr. Edward B. Morgan, well-known physician here.

In March he will attempt to restore a blind boy's sight by replacing his useless eye with one from a pig. Within ten years he expects such substitutions to become popular.

"The medical fraternity," says Dr. Morgan, "has just begun to open up the possibilities of the replacement of worn-out human organs by corresponding parts from animals."

"I am convinced that there are thousands of people making in darkness who could be made to see by replacing their sightless eyes with pig's eyes, which, among the animals, most closely resemble the human eye. If the optic nerve has not been damaged, I can see no reason why such an operation should not be a success."

Gland Transplantations Successful.
"Glands and kidneys, whose close counterparts can be readily found in animals, should also be capable of substitution. In fact the substitution of monkey glands has already yielded beneficial results."

DR. MORGAN OPERATES IN HIS OWN OFFICE.
WITHOUT THE CUSTOMARY OPERATING ROOM PARAPHERNALIA

dinance were those suggested by Commissioner of the Revenue P. C. Bess. One of these would reduce the tax rate on intangibles from 30 cents per $100 to 20 cents per $100 on such intangibles as bonds, notes and other evidences of debt. Another would provide a tax on public pay or subscription bonds held here. One of the town dyers and cleaners who solicit business here would be required to pay the regulation license and sign painters, during the next fiscal year, will have to pay a license tax of $50. Persons or firms engaging in the ice cream and other confectioneries must pay a license of $2.50 a day or $7.50 a week unless such sales be for the benefit of a church or charitable organization.

The proposed license tax of 32 1/2 per year on detective doing business here provoked some debate. Waynes Harrison wanted to know how any sleuth could succeed in his enterprise if on arriving in Danville to do special work he was compelled to announce his arrival by applying for license. Nobody seemed to be very clear on why the tax was imposed but it was brought out that it had been in force for six months. Sergeant J. L. Edwards was heard from on the subject and he told the council that the tax was really meant to exclude certain "sleuth" detectives "who learn to be detectives by the correspondence schools" and who, the sergeant impressively declared, "do more harm than good." It was adopted. Piano tuners will henceforth have to pay a license tax of $10 per annum and all firms not operated for personal profit will have to pay $10 a day, this to include taxes on side-shows and concessions.

Routine action taken last night included the appropriation of $1,150 to pay the salary of four additional firemen until the end of the present fiscal year, the appropriation of $320 to pay for a carload of asphalt for repaving the city streets, the provision of an additional nurse to the city's corps to attend maternity cases, part of her salary to be paid by the state and the appropriation of $250 to buy office supplies for the juvenile court, the monthly accounts read by City Auditor Moss totaled $14,562.45.

DANVILLE TO JOIN IN WAR
ON RATS NOW

Plans were made here yesterday for Danville's inclusion in the county anti-rat campaign which is to start on January 22nd and which will continue until January 27. The state and federal governments are cooperating in what promise to be an intensive war on rats probably the most thorough undertaking ever attempted before in Virginia. Carlyle Carr representing the Department of Agriculture is cooperating with the state Agricultural Experiment Station in carrying out his task of organizing the cities in the work. Dr. R. W. Garnett was put in charge of the city campaign which will include the purchase by the city of barium carbonate, a well known rat poison, and its free distribution throughout the city. Prizes will be offered for those who succeed in killing the largest number of rodents in this city. It is proposed to distribute throughout the state of Virginia about 40,000 pounds of poison. The Extension Department at Blacksburg has in charge the organization of the counties and every county agent is already organized with a high degree of interest already apparent in the forthcoming assault. Progress has already been made in this showing the amazing preparation of rats and the vast amount of damage they do annually.

In connection with the anti-rat campaign a meeting was held at the Danville High School last night. It was a fast and snappy contest of wits and the local debating team won the match. The Danville team was the outstanding feature of the game.

SOUTH BOSTON

It was a fast and snappy contest of wits and the local debating team won the match. The Danville team was the outstanding feature of the game.

Mrs. B. F. Mebane
Addresses Club

The first formal occupancy of the club rooms on Main street acquired some months ago by the Wednesday Afternoon Club was by the Music Study Club which recently invited Mrs. B. F. Mebane to deliver a lecture on the Passion Play at Oberammergau which she witnessed last summer.

As was to be expected, Mrs. Mebane was greeted by a large and cultured audience last night when she spoke from personal observation and knowledge of the world-famed Passion Play, usually portrayed in a vast natural theatre at Oberammergau, a small town in Bavaria some 42 miles southward of Munich. This Passion Play, descriptive of the passion of Jesus Christ, and conducted as a religious ceremony, rather than as a histrionic performance or a mere spectacle, has been for years enacted before vast audiences including pilgrims from all parts of the Christian world in every tenth year, but delayed for two years and given in 1920 as its most spectacular feature. For this remarkable portrayal of the closing period of the life of Jesus, ending with His crucifixion, the finest dramatic talent of the community is selected, special care being taken in choosing for the cast, him who is to portray Christ. As a vast and moving spectacle and a vivid and realistic piece of dramatic art its effect is profoundly religious and never fails to stir beholders.

Mrs. Mebane, an experienced traveler and an accurate and thoughtful observer as well as a woman of unusual literary and speaking talents, in her address to the club last night gave a comprehensive and vivid description of the great religious play, a survival of the old miracle and mystery plays which marked the beginning of histrionic art and imparted to her description a much needed realism and enthusiasm and impressiveness that her address was peculiarly appreciated and enjoyed.

HENRY COUNTY COURT MEETS

MARTINSVILLE, Va., Jan. 10.—The Henry county circuit court which has been in session during the present week has been hearing, for the most part, civil cases.

There was only one criminal case that of Thomas Burgess, a negro boy, indicted for forgery. The jury returned a verdict of guilty and gave him a two-year term in the penitentiary.

The facts as brought out in the testimony were substantially as follows: Burgess wishing to get a marriage license to marry Tula Smith, the 14-year-old daughter of Adam Smith, colored, of Ridgeview, presented to the clerk for a certificate or note, purporting to be signed by the girl's father, stating that her parents gave their consent to the marriage. County Clerk T. C. Matthews issued the license on this certificate. The testimony was that Burgess had secured the father's signature as to who actually forged the paper.

The one prohibition case was that of M. W. Shelton, who was given the minimum punishment, $50 fine and one month in jail.

A. H. Conner who brought suit against George Martin for damages resulting from the collision of an automobile and motorcycle was allowed by a jury $500. The testimony was that the car, owned by Mr. C. R. Wray and one other man were coming into town from Fieldale on a motorcycle. Near Reynolds factory on Fayette street an automobile was seen coming a high speed. Conner claimed that he kept the road on his extreme right and the car crossed the road directly in front of the motorcycle throwing Mr. Wray, who was in the passenger seat, about twenty feet up the road and Conner, who was on the seat, was knocked about ten feet along with the motorcycle. Conner was so badly hurt that he had to be carried home and was confined to his house for about three months. He stated that he would never recover entirely from the collision.

Martin had no attorney and made no statement.

The two teams of the Y. M. C. A. the Seneca and Juniors, were a double header at Draper last night, the former winning by the score of 27 to 17 and the latter by 18 to 10. Both of the local teams put up a scrappy game and were not to be denied.

The work of Hilde at center for the first time was very good. He shot a lot of ten from free goals.

For the Juniors Ragland at forward played a splendid game.

Roun and Harger were the stars for the two Draper teams.

BUDGET BUREAU
TO STUDY SUGAR
CANE DISEASES

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Reduction by the budget bureau of $10,000 in a department of Agriculture estimate for an appropriation to study sugar cane diseases was used by Senator Hefflin, Democrat, Alabama, and other Southern Senators in the Senate today as the vehicle for an attack on the government budget machinery.

The Alabama Senator declared the budget bureau was introducing "barrenness" rule. In government of it this thing continues much longer it ain't going to be constituted at all, rejoined Senator Hefflin.

Senator Overman, Democrat, North Carolina, said he was informed that the budget bureau sent a "former hotel man from Chicago" down to the Agriculture Department to supervise and reduce some department estimates.

"From what I hear about the hotels," interjected Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, "a hotel man has a good knowledge of 'corn'."

Senator Hefflin said he was inclined to the same belief from the amount he had to pay for corn flakes at my hotel," Senator Caraway explained he did not mean "corn in flakes" corn in some form.

BRITAIN LAYS
CARDS ON TABLE
AS TO HER DEBT

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Great Britain's financial mission laid its cards on the table today before the American Debt Commission at an executive session at the Treasury. Details were withheld, but there were renewed expressions of hope that out of the negotiations would come at least a tentative agreement for the reduction of the British debt of more than four billions of dollars, perhaps within a week.

Before the commissions assembled for their second formal session, Senator Smoot, Republican, Utah, a member of the American commission, informed the Senate Finance Committee at an executive session that Congress would be asked to broaden the powers of the American commission in dealing not only with the British debt, but with those of the other allied countries.

At today's sessions the British delegation presented a mass of data and statistics to support the opening statement of Stanley Baldwin, British chancellor of the exchequer, to conditions which Great Britain faces in arranging to meet its war time obligation. There was included copies of the British budget for this and other years, details as to assets and liabilities and many other matters essential to an assessment of the whole situation.

The official spokesman said this information was discussed informally for nearly two hours and that it would receive further consideration at a third session tomorrow. After the British delegation retired, the Americans remained in session for an hour, but members said there was no announcement to be made.

CLARK PLEADED
FOR SLAIN MEN

(By The Associated Press)
MARTIN, Ill., Jan. 10.—The defense at the Herrin riots trial directed all of its efforts today toward an attempt to prove Otis Clark, alleged leader of the mob and one of the five defendants pleaded in vain to save the lives of the twenty non-union workers slain June 22.

"If this is going to be murder, I'll quit right now," eight eye-witnesses testified they heard Clark declare to a crowd of men who escorted him away from the mine where the trouble started to Grenshaw's Crossing, three-quarters of a mile from the pit the morning of the tragedy.

"The miners do not approve of murder and if these men are killed it will be the worst thing that ever happened to the United Mine Workers and to Williamson County," John Miller, secretary of the miners' local at Royaltown testified that Clark told the crowd after several persons had cried: "Hang them" and "kill them."

The eight eye-witnesses and another Harry Wilson, Williamson City miner testified it would have been impossible for Clark to have taken any part in the slayings which took place between 6:40 and 9:15 a. m.

The defense also recalled three of the state's witnesses for further cross examination in an effort to impeach testimony they previously had given.

Will Arraign Talley Friday

Trial Not Expected to Begin in Greensboro Until Next Week.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Jan. 11.—Carl Talley, outlaw, who was captured near South Boston, Va., December 24, after having evaded police officials since May 4, 1921, will be arraigned in Guilford county Superior court sometime Friday on a charge of murdering Policeman W. Thomas McCusker, of the local police force.

While the grand jury yesterday returned a true bill against Talley charging him accessory to murder, former indictments returned by a Superior court grand jury charged him with murder. As a result the latter charge will hold preference over all others. Lewis Edwards, who is serving a 10 years' sentence for the murder of the policeman, is expected to be brought here as a witness in the Talley case. It will mark the first time that these two have met since the tragedy of the local policeman.

Talley is expected to be placed on trial sometime next week. Solicitor F. Spruill stated yesterday that he would set a special day for the trial when Talley was arraigned in court on Friday. With the announcement that Talley would be tried on a murder charge considerable interest has been aroused as to whether two men could be charged with the murder of one man and especially when one man had been convicted of the shooting. However, it was stated yesterday by attorneys, that this charge against Talley could be heard.

Policeman McCusker was shot May 4, 1921, and immediately after the shooting Talley, Edwards and Robertson made a hasty retreat in their automobile which was carrying liquor. Robertson was killed in the police chase after the gang and Edwards was caught while Talley made his escape.

Talley's being taken into custody after having evaded the officers for about 20 months came about as the result of a quarrel with his cousin, John T. Cook, at the home of the latter's brother near Scottsburg, Va. The quarrel between the two men resulted in an exchange of shots and Talley was wounded in the neck, taken to the office of Dr. J. D. Hagerood, of Scottsburg, and was there identified by John W. Hatcher, deputy sheriff of Halifax county.

According to Mr. Hatcher, he had been on Talley's trail for about 10 days prior to his arrest. The outlaw, alleged to have gone under the name of Robert Martin following the shooting of the Greensboro policeman, Talley was brought to the county jail Christmas night, the trip having been made to this city from Danville, Va., in a box car while Talley occupied a stretcher.

FORMER KING CONSTANTINE, OF GREECE, IS DEAD

attacked, not only by Bulgaria, but by Austria and Germany and that if Greece had interposed, she would have suffered the fate of Belgium.

The demand for his abdication was not based upon this failure to fulfill treaty provisions but upon his reputed disloyalty to Greek parliaments and to charges that he or Greek ministers under his direction has aided the Central powers by permitting the establishment of German submarine bases in Greek waters, surrendering Greek ports and men to Bulgaria and by declining to remove the menace of his army from the rear of the Entente forces on the Macedonian front.

It was believed that Constantine by his evasion of the demands of the Entente commanders, was attempting to gain time in the hope that Germany would assemble sufficient forces to overwhelm the Entente army. The disaffection between Constantine and the diplomats representing the guarantor powers reached a climax in a clash of his troops with those of the Entente at Saloniki and a Greek army of Athens to enforce a demand for a surrender of ten batteries of Greek artillery to compensate for the surrender of Greek guns to the Teutonic allies.

In the fighting there were about 200 casualties. The king surrendered the batteries. Meanwhile because of the conduct of Constantine, Venizelos had established a provisional government at Saloniki and organized an army, declared war on some of the allies of the Central Powers and was constantly gaining accessions from the former adherents of Constantine, whose followers were steadily leaving him.

The Entente Powers laid an embargo on imports to Greece as a result of which the Greeks suffered severe deprivations. This culminated in the "intolerable condition" described by Premier Ribot and France sent one of her generals, M. Jonnart, to demand Constantine's abdication.

Constantine's regime dated from March 18, 1912, when his father, George I, was assassinated. He was born on August 3, 1868, was educated by German tutors and received military instruction at German army maneuvers.

After having been once dismissed as commander of the Greek army in 1909, because of popular clamor against him, Constantine, then Crown Prince, became a national hero in the Balkan war of 1912 by leading a Greek army to the capture of Saloniki from the Turks, as a result of which he was accorded the popular title of "The Liberator."

MARIETTA, Ga., Jan. 10.—Miss Anne Guber, 28, member of a well known Marietta family, was killed tonight when the automobile of Herbert Clay, former president of the state Senate, in which she was riding, crashed into a guy wire on the Atlanta road.

According to reports reaching here the glare from the headlights on an electric interurban caused Mr. Clay to lose control of his machine which plunged into a ditch broken glass severed Miss Guber's jugular vein and she died before aid could reach her.

Palatial Home Of Sen. France Is Levied Upon

BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 9.—A red-faced smiling Deputy Sheriff seized the palatial home of United States Senator Joseph I. France, 15 West Mount Vernon Place this afternoon with no other weapon than a court attachment. Senator France was not present to witness the levy of $800 upon his home, pending trial of a suit filed a few weeks ago in City Court for the "annulment" of his marriage.

"The Senator," said the Deputy Sheriff who walked up the great stone steps of the Senator's house. He had three men with him as appraisers. Bachman pushed the button and a dignified person appeared within the portals and closed the door. "Is your boss—I mean the Senator—?" asked the Deputy.

Solemnly the butler announced that the Senator and Mrs. France were in Washington where they were living for the winter.

"Well, I guess I'll step inside and take possession," announced Bachman, followed by the three appraisers. The butler was surprised, but the papers were forthcoming, and the appraisers looked about swiftly, first at the carpets, then the walls, the tapestry and what not and nodded approval. The place was worth $800 at least, they were sure.

The was obtained by Mrs. Mary V. Turner in City Court before Judge E. H. Frank in connection with a suit by Mrs. Turner against Mrs. France. The action is for services rendered at the rate of $100 a month under an agreement of Oct. 25, 1919.

A few weeks ago Deputy Sheriff (Johnny) Kelly, mounted guard for the old Orioles baseball team, attempted to obtain service of notification of the suit, but the butler told the ex-ball player that the senator was living at the National Capitol. Then came the attachment.

When informed of the seizure of his home Senator France, in Washington said today.

"I don't know nothing about it, except that I do not see how the house can be labelled when Mrs. France has never been served notice of the suit."

Minister Gets a 30 Day Term

GREENSBORO, N. C., Jan. 11.—"I am not going to be harsh with this man. I'm going to show him mercy. I'm going to give him an opportunity to reform and repent. It is rather hard to reform a man who is 44 years old. We generally start to reform the boy. But I'm going to be lenient with him—he was a minister—and I'll not sentence him to a long term," said Judge A. M. Stack in Superior court yesterday afternoon after a jury had returned a verdict of guilty against W. Alfred, who was charged with operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor and who noted an appeal of a four-month sentence which was meted out to him in municipal court.

For the next 30 days Mr. Alfred will serve on the public roads of Guilford county. But in addition to this he was fined $100 and costs and was ordered to give a good bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the June term of court to prove by himself and others that he has not touched liquor in any form from now until June and that he not preach at any time until after the June court term.

Children Offer Up Prayer For Vandal

KINSTON, N. C., Jan. 10.—Children on their knees in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Catholic edifice in Northwest Kinston, prayed for forgiveness for a vandal. The story came out today that Sunday the rectory room in the church was found desecrated. Priests occasionally sleep there, using an army cot, the gift of a former lieutenant-colonel in the Third Division. The trunk in which the bed linen were kept had been broken open and the contents scattered.

To gain entrance, the pullager ruthlessly smashed a stained glass window, doing damage of $40 or $50. He carried away a key to the priests' room. Leaders of the congregation believe theft was the motive for the intrusion. Nothing of value save altar furnishings and statuary was accessible, and these were not disturbed.

The scene was unique when children of the Sunday school knelt and prayed "for the vandal." They sent up pleas that he might be "led out of the error of his ways and into a better understanding, that their humble petitions might save his soul and penitence come unto him." It was the only contribution. There was no outcry to the police.

Woman Succumbs to Injuries Sustained at Negro's Hands

COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 10.—Mrs. Laura Lancaster, 52, of Gervais, S. C., who was attacked with a club by Thomas Johnson, a young negro, died this afternoon as the result of injuries received. The negro who is held in the state prison here for suffragette said his reason for the attack was revenge as Mrs. Lancaster had "treated him mean."

Even Mary Garden "Cooes" To Health

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Mary Garden is happy and in good health again. It is due to Coues' book she says. "I am cured of my bronchitis, pneumonia, of headaches and the 'little stupid stuff' that flesh is heir to."

His suggestions learned through a book, have brought her to a condition of health she has not enjoyed for years, and she is counting the days until she can visit him.

"During my concert tour," said Miss Garden, "I was stricken with bronchial pneumonia and for twenty days was flat on my back in New York. Ten days ago, before I was well, I visited Atlantic City and there got Coues' book. First it interested me, then it absorbed me, and now I can't get along without it."

"Now it is my religion, and the last thing I see when I go to bed and the first thing when I get up in the morning is the little book. It is like a Bible, and every night and every morning I religiously repeat. Every day I say, 'Every day I am Growing Stronger and Stronger.'"

Carolina Readers Very Discriminating

(By The Associated Press)

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 11.—North Carolinians are finding Hutchinson's "The Winning of the West," "Main Street," and Rhinehardt's "Breaking Point," the most interesting of late day novels, although the East has taken up "Babbalanza," "One of Our," and "The Red Rover," according to a census made of a number of libraries by Miss Mary Palmer, secretary of the state library commission.

Willis Albert Cather's novel, however, is rapidly becoming one of the most popular of the latest fiction publications and is being followed closely by the last offerings of Sinclair Lewis, A. S. M. Hutchinson and Francis Hodgson Burnett.

In non-fiction, the greatest demand in North Carolina has been for Linton Strachey's "Queen Victoria," H. G. Wells' "Outline of History," and the "Americanization of Edward Bok."

Miss Palmer's list of the most popular books in North Carolina is as follows:

Fiction.
Babbalanza—Sinclair Lewis.
Breaking Point—Mary Roberts Rinehart.
Brimming Cup—Dorothy Canfield Fisher.
Certain People of Importance—Kathleen Norris.
Country Beyond—J. O. Curwood.
Four Square—Grace Richmond Glimpses of the Moon—Edith Wharton.

Head of the House of Coombe—Francis Hodgson Burnett.

If Winter Comes—A. S. M. Hutchinson.

Main Street—Sinclair Lewis.

One of Our—Willis Albert Cather.

Pride of Palomar—Peter B. Kyne.

Robinson—Francis Hodgson Burnett.

This Freedom—A. S. M. Hutchinson.

To the Last Man—Zane Grey.

Americanization of Edward Bok—Edward Bok.

Autobiography—Margot Asquith.

Eminent Victorians—Lytton Strachey.

Glass of Fashion.

Mind in the Making—J. H. Robinson.

Mirrors of Downing Street.

Mirrors of Washington.

Mystic Isles of the South Seas—Frederick O'Brien.

Outline of Science—J. H. Thompson.

Outwitting Our Nerves—J. A. Jackson.

Queen Victoria—Lytton Strachey.

Story of 'Mankind—Hendrick Van Loon.

What Men Live By—Richard C. Cabot.

White Shadows in the South Seas—Frederick O'Brien.

Would Protect Carolina Birds

(By The Associated Press)

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 11.—Senator H. E. Parker, of Wayne county, chairman of the senate committee on game laws, today announced he is seeking the co-operation of sportsmen throughout the state in framing legislation designed to protect and increase game.

"I desire to invite citizens of the state who are interested in seeing our game protected and preserved to write me of their experiences and ideas on the subject, in order that I may submit them to the full committee," he said.

"It is time that North Carolina was doing something to game and in the future have almost exterminated the most desirable of the wild game of the state, and I would like to see some law sufficiently strong to stop them."

Several game and fish associations recently have been organized in the state, and the senator is expecting their cooperation in framing the new laws, he said.

Paid the Rent With Spool Of Thread

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Jan. 11.—That to do when the rent came around puzzled the tenant of a seven-room house at Celle, Westphalia, when he was short of money, until he happened to think of several spools of sewing machine thread left on hand from purchases made before the war.

The tenant pays 900 marks annually for the house and the quarters' rent amounted to 225. His offer to pay the landlord with one spool of thread was accepted, the tenant receiving 10 marks cash in change since this thread now sells for 235 marks a spool. Before the war, the spools cost him 30 pfennings each.

A federal law limits the prices that may be charged for rent. Thread follows the dollar rate of exchange.

"A Town Without a Telephone" is the dubious title acquired by Mehrstedt, a place of 400 inhabitants situated in Thuringia. Up to recently, Mehrstedt housed at least one of the usual central toll station, but one day the mail-carrier came along and officially carried off its sole apparatus. None of the residents feels he can afford the luxury of a connection, so all now have to wait for the mail to tell them "how the dollar stands."

RUSSIA ORDERS OIL DRILLING MACHINERY

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Jan. 11.—The Russian Soviet government, in anticipation of increased activity in oil production, has placed a record order for drilling machinery with a British firm.

Ten complete outfits of the Rotary-Rex machine, specially designed for deep and rapid drilling, are to be delivered early in 1923 for use in the Baku fields.

The government of Persia is making large amounts annually out of royalties from oil producing areas, and this in addition to many other benefits resulting from the activities of foreign oil companies in Persia.

The royalties in 1921 amounted to $2,750,000 on 2,327,221 tons of oil. The companies also spend about $7,500,000 for material, labor and food, and they give employment to 20,000 Persians.

Boyden Likely To Remain As U. S. Observer

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The order bringing the troops from the Rhine will not be followed by a withdrawal of American participation in the Reparations Commission unless there is a change in the present policy of the American Government outlined today in authoritative quarters.

It is the belief of officials here that despite agitation in Congress regarding the activity of Roland W. Boyden, the American unofficial observer with the commission, his retention at his post is of value in protecting American interests and aiding towards a final settlement of the reparations problem.

Hays, had come to Washington to see her and had explained that Mr. Hays had been misrepresented and that instead of permitting Arbuckle to return to the screen, Mr. Hays only intended Arbuckle should be given an opportunity to do minor work about the studios.

SANE PROTECTIVE MEASURES.

Presentation of two ordinances, one of which was adopted by the city council last night, is official recognition of the widespread use of the automobile, the necessity of meeting the peril of accident or misadventure and recognition of a duty to take steps to preserve the public. The sentiment of the council last night was apparently favorable to the enactment of the law which would compel owners of automobiles to carry liability insurance.
But for the fact that it was deemed advisable to rewrite the ordinance and broaden its scope it probably would have gone through and would have become a law, just as the anti-skating law will become operative shortly following its passage.

At first blush it may seem to careful drivers something of an impossibility to saddle on the car-owner a financial obligation to cover possible accident. Reviewed more carefully, however, it does not appear as such and objectors will quickly reconcile themselves to the proposed ordinance when they consider it in the broader light of the protection it affords. Since the day came when the automobile came within the reach of people of slender means there has developed no small element of car drivers, some of them colored people, who, for one reason or another, failed to protect or to guarantee themselves against financial loss by insuring against damage to person or property. The result of this was seen twice recently when two car drivers, both of them colored, were responsible for accidents resulting in damage to property and to person in which the sufferers were without recourse. In one instance it was a case where a driver ran amuck and damaged several cars which were parked by the curb and all of which sustained damage, the owners being wholly irresponsible and yet which they had to make good out of their own pocket. There is the constant danger of some pedestrian being injured by someone unable to make financial reparation and against whom such loss cannot even be equalized through the process of law because they have nothing on which it can be made.

This is the main purpose of the ordinance which would offer the alternative of persons putting up a bond instead of taking out an insurance policy and which would meet the situation.

The anti-skating ordinance is not really an abridgement of the liberties of our youngsters. It is in our opinion a wise precaution. There has been repeated complaint recently of children congregating on the smooth, paved streets on skate and at least one accident from this has resulted. The ordinance would not prohibit the use of skates since the ordinance is not intended to prohibit the use of skates but to prevent the use of skates when they are used in a dangerous manner. That requires instruction or control. That requires instruction or control. That requires instruction or con-

ROADS ARE NEARLY ABLE TO SUPPLY DEMAND FOR CARS

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Railroads were more ready than ever to supply the freight ordered by shippers on December 31, according to reports today to the Car Service Division of the American Railway Association, than at any time in the past several months.
The shortage of cars for the month of December was 1,227 cars, against 1,227 cars the previous week. During November the shortage was above 50,000 cars.

Cleveland Lives Within Income

(Special to The Bee)

CLEVELAND, Jan. 11.—Inhabitants of Cleveland, the nation's fifth largest city, face a serious threat.

It's the threat that the city again
this year will live within its income, a feat it accomplished last year despite politicians, city council and administration obstructors.

Behind that threat is Mayor Fred Kohler.

It's a threat, not a promise," says Kohler. "We don't promise. Politicians promise."

Then Kohler, a humorous glint in his eyes, told how he had made the city a financial success—told how any city can do the same thing.

He told how he had taken office early in 1921 with the city $500,000 in debt. And how he reported on New Year Day this year the city's books showed a surplus of $550,000.

Payroll Cut First.

"We began by trimming the payroll," Kohler explained. "That was our biggest saving. But we made aimed as large a saving in elimination of waste in stock and supplies.
We've cut down pretty near the bone but we can cut even more and we will."

"It takes nerve. We've found it hard with both political organizations against us. We've been hardly on speaking terms with the council."

"That's because we've fired their poor relations. And every time we look at someone off the payroll and didn't replace him, we found we got better service out of the rest."

"There used to be so many men on garbage collection duty there was no room for half of them to work one time and scarcely any room for garbage on the wagons."

How He Looks.

This exaggeration is typical of Kohler. He is energy and action throughout. More than six feet tall and proportionately built, he shows fight in his make-up.

He has a high, well-knit brow, firmly set jaw, deep-set piercing eyes and thin lips that give a hint of a humorous, likable vein.

"You know," he comments, "many people think a city ought to have a good business man for mayor. But it's not so much his business qualifications that make him a good city executive as his knowledge of his people."

"And in whatever you do, if you want to do it right, you can't let anybody else do it for you and I don't."

This year is Kohler's last as mayor.
Then a change in Cleveland's government will place a city manager at its head. But Kohler denies his effecrecently. The guests were fed in relays, it taking four and one-half hours to take care of all of them.

But sixteen of the visitors were able to eat at the only table provided for the occasion, the dishes being gathered up and cleaned between "first,"

"second," etc., tables.

Nobody hurried because there were others waiting, and there was little activity after each had secured his share of the long-sleeved question.

HOW KOHLER DID IT

BY FRED KOHLER,
Mayor of Cleveland.

ANY city can live within its income if its people will only make up their minds to it.

Throw off your supposed obligations to politicians and their poor relations. Fire the loafers.
Get down to business.

And if you want to get anywhere, you can't afford to let a few people dictate to you.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 30c.

Ends Stubborn Coughs
in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Ready and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and really there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a pint bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. A dry's eye will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Urged By Women, 3 State Governors
Turn Prosecutors to Unravel Crimes

(Special to The Bee)

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Has the machinery of the law broken down in the struggle against crime? Is one-man government to be the solution? Questions like this are being asked as the result of this unprecedented situation.

Three governors within as many months in three different states have taken a hand in the solution of murder mysteries that have baffled police and prosecutors.

Gov. Alfred E. Smith, of New York, is the latest state executive to turn criminologist by ordering an investigation of the famous Ward case.

In this case, as in two others preceding it, a woman made the plea for executive interference. One was a mother of a slain victim, one a wife, and one a daughter.

Mother Appeals to Governor. Mrs. Mary Peters, mother of Clarence Peters, asked that Governor Smith investigate the killing of her son last May 15 near White Plains. Her plea came a few days after the court had dismissed the indictment for first degree murder against Walter S. Ward, wealthy young vice-president of the Ward Baking company, who gave himself up last May 22 with the confession that he had killed Peters as the result of a blackmail plot. The indictment was dismissed for lack of evidence.

Mrs. Thomas E. Richards less than a month earlier made the plea to Gov. John M. Parker, of Louisiana, that resulted in the investigation for the killing of Richards and Watt Daniels at Mer Rouge, La. Their bodies were blown by dynamite out of Lake La Fourche during the inquiry and the nation is watching efforts to place the blame for the killings, which occurred last August.

Mrs. Charlotte Mills, daughter of Mrs. Eleanor Mills, was the first to call upon a state executive to unravel a mystery following the failure of county authorities to solve the murders of Mrs. Mills and Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall at New Brunswick, N. J., last September 14.

Letters written by Miss Mills to

Governor Edward I. Edwards resulted in the appointment of a special state attorney general to prosecute the case. It remains unsolved, though the inquiry has not been officially closed. In the meantime Edwards has become a United States senator and has been succeeded by Governor C. S. Sizoo.

Following the beating, Zimmerman was taken into the yard at the Strayhorn home and told, it is alleged never to visit the Strayhorn premises or the town of Thomasville again. JOINT FUNERAL
FOR 2 VICTIMS

ROANOKE, Va., Jan. 10.—Joint funeral services for Miss Mabel and F. W. Wimmer, killed by a falling wall on Church Avenue Tuesday night, will be held at the Calvary Baptist Church Thursday afternoon at three o'clock, the Rev. Richard S. Owens, pastor, presiding. City officials continue today to maintain a reticent attitude. It was stated by City Manager W. P. Hunter that no official inquiry would be ordered pending the meeting City Council Friday afternoon. A conference between Governor H. Gordon Simmons and Commonwealth Attorney S. R. Price, it was agreed that it would be unnecessary to hold a coroner's inquest over the bodies. City Engineer Inspector Douglas Maguire indicated that he was rolling himself in readiness to carry out any orders received from the city manager or the council.

ANTI-STRIKE LAW
IS RECOMMENDED

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 10.—Anti-strike legislation was recommended to the West Virginia Legislature today in the biennial message of Governor E. B. Morgan. "Strikes and lock-outs are economic blunders and in the interest of all the people I recommend the enactment of such legislation that will prevent the suspension of work in at least our basic industries, pending adjudication of disputes," the governor said.

Back To America

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The transport St. Michel will sail for Europe at noon Friday to bring back the American troops on the Rhine whose recall was ordered today by President Harding. It was announced late this afternoon.

Colonel Louis H. Bass, of the Army Transport Base in Brooklyn, said the vessel had been ordered to sail for a German port, not yet designated.

Work of stacking the St. Michel immediately was begun. Captain Oliver of the St. Michel said it would take 13 or 14 days to make the voyage across.

DEEP REGRET OVER THE
LEAVING OF TROOPS

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, Jan. 10.—The army and people of France felt deep regret and depression tonight over the order for the American forces to leave the Rhine. The fear was openly expressed that President Harding's decision would be construed by Germany and other nations as a rebuke to France upon the eve of her independent action in the Ruhr.

Although Premier Poincare had not up to a late hour tonight, received official confirmation of the decision he accepted the news dispatches on the subject as authentic. M. Poincare was in the Senate when the first dispatches from Washington reached Paris. The messages were hurried to him and he immediately conveyed the information to a group of Senators who discussed the matter among themselves.

The Senators expressed considerable surprise at the news, professing refusal at first to believe that the United States would take such a step at this time in view of its possible effect on the opinion in Germany and other countries.

BOYDEN SHOULD BE RECALLED SAYS REED

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—President Harding's action in ordering American troops home from the Rhine should be followed by the recall of Roland W. Boyden, unofficial observer of the United States on the reparations commission, Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, declared today during an address in the Senate. An unofficial representative he asserted is an "unofficial mediator."

WORD OF WITHDRAWAL
RECEIVED IN COBLENZ

COBLENZ, Jan. 10.—At midnight tonight no information had been received officially at headquarters of the American forces in Germany that President Harding had ordered the immediate recall home of the United States troops on the Rhine. In the American area everything was going on in a customary routine manner. The American population was stirred by the announcement of the president's departure of the American Major General Henry T. Allen has declined to comment on the situation. It is known that he recently recommended that the American forces be withdrawn from the Rhine for diplomatic reasons. The eighth infantry is still being held within the boundaries of the Rhine. Small parties of French soldiers, however, are still in the streets tonight.

SUBMARINE F-19
IS DISABLED

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Jan. 10.—The submarine F-19 was reported disabled today by the British command. The vessel was received at the naval base at Portsmouth, where it was found to have been damaged by a fire in the engine room, and that the U. S. S. Swallow and U. S. S. Drumheller were proceeding to the aid of the vessel. It was reported from New London, Conn., to the West Indies. The message indicated the F-19 was not in danger. No information was given, however, as to the extent of damage or whether there were any casualties. The Savannah and Rushkill were said to be in the vicinity of the submarine.

DORA REED GETS
2-YEAR SENTENCE

(By The Associated Press)
HOTEL WELLS, Va., Jan. 10.—Dora Reed, waitress, charged with the murder in connection with the killing of John Smart, a young automobile salesman last October, was convicted of involuntary manslaughter by a jury in corporation court late today. Her punishment was fixed at two years imprisonment in the state penitentiary.

The jury deliberated the case about three hours. Once they reported to Judge T. B. Robertson that there was no hope of reaching an agreement. The panel was sent back to the jury room and an hour later the verdict was reported.

Execution of the sentence is suspended pending hearing of a motion by the defense to set aside the verdict. Argument on the motion will be heard January 17. Smart was shot to death in a local boarding house while in company with Mrs. Reed, according to witnesses. These witnesses testified that the man first said he had shot himself, but later declared the woman shot him. Mrs. Reed contended that the shooting was accidental and that pistol was discharged during a struggle.

At a former trial of the case, the jury failed to agree and a mistrial was entered. The second trial consumed two days.

HOW DOCTORS
TREAT COLDS
AND THE FLU

First Step in Treatment is a Brisk Purgative With Calomel, the Purified and Refined Calomel
Tablets That Are Nauseless, Safe and Sure.

Doctors have found by experience that no medicine for colds, coughs, sore throat, and influenza can be depended upon for full effectiveness until the liver is made thoroughly active. That is why the first step in the treatment is the new, nausealess calomel tablet called Calotabs, which are free from the sickening and weakening effects of the old style calomel. Doctors also point out the fact that an active liver may go a long way towards preventing influenza and colds and is one of the most important factors in enabling the patient to successfully withstand an attack and ward off pneumonia.

One or two Calotabs on the tongue at bed time, with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified, and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Genuine Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large, family package; ten cents for the small, vest-pocket size—adv.

Bet Lost, Washes Wife's Unmentionables in Street

BALTIMORE, Jan. 10.—Arousing much merriment of men and women neighbors Charles Lerner, 21, paid a bet this morning by washing his wife's lingerie on the curbing in front of his home.

As Lerner, rather red in the face and considerably embarrassed, scrubbed and rinsed his wife's seldom-mentioned articles of apparel Mrs. Lerner stood nearby and watched delightedly.

Morris Gilbert, who won the unique wager which forced Lerner to wash the family linen in public, also stood by and apparently enjoyed Lerner's confusion.

Lerner's unusual "stunt" was not done because of any excess of zeal on his part to remove his wife of the duties of the household but was done as the result of a wager made in Criminal Court yesterday. Lerner bet that five men accused of robbing a house would be found guilty. Gilbert thought they would be freed, Lerner lost.

In a cold, dazzling rain Lerner brought out on the pavement a basket of soiled clothes and the family wash tub. Then as the crowd began to gather, he picked up one of his wife's undergarments and began scrubbing it on the washboard and the more he scrubbed the more he blushed. But he finished the job and the crowd enjoyed the show.

Retrial

English slaver is agog over reports that Mrs. John Russell (above) will face very soon a retrial of the divorce suit brought by her husband, son of the former viceroy of India. In the first trial, won by Mrs. Russell, both parties were "unconscious" of how their child was born. Russell testified that their love was "strictly platonic."

Famous Estate Is Broken Up

(By The Associated Press)
NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 10.—The breaking up of one of the largest estates of the Old South is about to be made complete with the acquisition by the State of Louisiana of the celebrated Ackland plantations, which are to be taken under the right of expropriation for State use in connection with the convict farms.

While the breaking up of the large estates in the South is a subject of frequent comment the division of the largest estates of the South has received little notice.

The Ackland plantations were part of a great estate which for many years had been in one family. Prior to the Civil War Colonel J. A. S. Ackland, the father of William Hayes Ackland of Washington, D. C., was the owner of seven plantations in one body of the Mississippi River. The plantations surrounded the Lake of the Cross where the explorer LaSalle and his prizes planted the Cross on the discovery of Louisiana. Deane's plantation, Colonel Ackland was the owner of many thousands of acres on Matigorda Bay, Texas, a town house in the city of Nashville, Tenn., and the largest stock farm in the South, six miles from Gallatin, Tenn.

He added to these properties he began to build in 1855 two miles from Nashville, Tenn., what he intended should be the most palatial residence in America with a ball room, picture gallery and several other features, and which bore the name Belmont after the place of birth at Padua, for many years Belmont was a show place and even known in Europe. It is said to have exceeded the decoration of the great house at Linc in that once popular novel.

After the death of Colonel and Mrs. Ackland Belmont passed out of the hands of the family. It was bought up by a man who became one of the great financiers of the cotton trade in the south and was known as Wald Belmont College.

As a result of the emancipation of his 1100 slaves, Colonel Ackland was unable to carry on the immense draining systems on his cotton plantations in Louisiana. The plantations, known as levees which protected the land from overflow fell into decay and ruin. The decay of the levees and the making of the culture of cotton so precarious that the land ceased to yield an income.

Peggy Marsh's Husband, Albert 'Bud' Johnson, Dies

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Albert L. Johnson, Cleveland's former traction superintendent, died here today of pneumonia.

Johnson's wife returned to London last November announcing she was seriously considering a divorce, and now is dancing at Ciro's.

After his runaway match Johnson, once a stockbroker, formed a dancing partnership with his wife. The couple appeared at a number of cabarets in Atlantic City, but friction soon developed and Peggy Marsh set sail.

Children Search Ruins of Destroyed Doll Hospital

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The fire that blazed briefly early today on the ground floor of the five-story tenement at No. 161 East Ninety-sixth street, was much as firemen and cops reckoned but it burned its way into the heart of many a youngster who calls that part of the East Side home.

Damage amounting to less than $500 at first estimate is little, indeed, for a fire, but in this case, it meant the cremation of a hundred dolls, particularly beloved of their owners because they were temporarily under treatment in the doll hospital of Carl Baer, which occupied the ground floor of the tenement.

Given so, several scores of dolls were saved, and hopeful children poring over them all during the day in search of some loved one. The joyful smile of one who found her doll companion almost seemed compensation for the many tears that flowed and the gulps that prevented many more from flowing.

Baer was as sorrowful as the children whose dolls had been burned. But he sought consolation in the fact that the loss would have been even so much more harrowing if the dolls had occurred before Christmas when the hospital had all beds taken and then some.

SHUING HAS FALLEN

(By The Associated Press)
CANTON, Jan. 10.—The city of Shuung midway between Canton and Wuchow has fallen to the troops of Sun Yat Sen, deposed president of the South China Republic who has announced his intention of re-taking Canton from his conquerors, General Chen Chung-Wing and regaining his power in the South.

"Frisking"

Those who attend the probe of the outrages at Mer Rouge, La., are carefully "frisked" of revolvers by deputy sheriffs before they enter the courtroom at Bastrop where the hearings are held.

AMBASSADOR RECALLED

(By The Associated Press)
BERLIN, Jan. 10.—Germany today recalled her Ambassador at Paris.

The Ambassador, Dr. Wilhelm Mayer, was instructed to leave the embassy in charge of its counselors.

The German minister to Belgium was recalled, with similar instructions.

Build Huge Coffin for Woman of 710 Pounds

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—A 710-pound woman will be buried in Queens tomorrow in the largest coffin ever made by the New York and Brooklyn Casket Company. She was Mrs. Martha Carmichael, a widow, of Middle Village.

Mrs. Carmichael died Sunday in Kings County Hospital and it took 10 men to move her body. A coffin shipping case was used, as the basket coffins in which bodies usually are carried are too small. The coffin, made to order, is 6 feet 3 inches long, 30 inches high and 28 inches wide.

The dead woman was 5 feet 11 inches tall and leaves three children, all normal. Physicians say her immobility was caused by elephantiasis, a chronic disease of the skin, and lymphatics, which occurs chiefly in tropical countries.

A PUZZLE A DAY

Philadelphia and New York are ninety miles apart. One train leaves Philadelphia, and travels at 60 miles an hour, but stops for 15 minutes. The other leaves New York and travels at 50 miles an hour without stopping. Which train will be farthest from Philadelphia when they meet?

Yesterday's answer:
The man divided his property as shown in the diagram. Thus he kept the outer circle of trees to himself, while the other house owners kept the inner circle.

Svelte Form Accentuated in This Wrap

Diana Dalziel, one of the New York younger social set's prominent members, is the wearer of this gorgeous and unusually lovely wrap.

Of brocade velvet, fur-trimmed and with gold cords, the garment makes an ideal accompaniment to the black velvet gown beneath.

It's peculiar cut emphasizes the owner's slenderness and its rich colors set off her dark beauty.

DE VALERA MAY BE IN UNITED STATES NOW

DUBLIN, Jan. 10.—Inquiries here today failed to elicit any confirmation of the report from Boston that Eamon De Valera would be in the United States shortly, if not already there. The general belief among those who are in a position to know is that he is neither in the United States nor on the way to that country.

Millionaire Tells Success Secret

(Special to The Bee)
MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 11.—A penniless business failure who rose to the head of a system of 871 chain stores doing more than $50,000,000 business a year in 22 states, is America's most remarkable millionaire.

He is James C. Penney, 47, of White Plains, N. Y., whose name would still be unknown to the general public if his broker hadn't announced the issuance of a $1,000,000 life insurance policy making his total $3,000,000. Only three other persons in this country carry a greater insurance. They are Adolph Zuckor who heads the list with $10,000,000, Rodman Wanamaker and Pierre du Pont.

Secret of His Success.
How has this wealthy man succeeded in keeping out of the public eye? By making his own business. He learned it as a boy.

When he was nine he lost the urge of making money. But there wasn't much doing in Hamilton, Mo., where he was born, and there wasn't much money after school. Young Penney began a job, he better.

He started raising hogs. He let one out to him. In his free hours he worked on a hog raising slope for his first $100. He gave it to him that day. He had to give it to him that day.

His venture was a planting watermelon.

At nine he had a hog. He got his first $100. He gave it to him that day. He had to give it to him that day.

Undaunted by Failure.
Ten years later, when the failure was a young man, he was in a drawing room. He was a young man. He was a young man. He was a young man.
